Capital City Squares will be collecting money until November 24 to contribute to San Joaquin County AIDS organizations in memory of David Cogswell. The CCS Board voted to have the Club match up to $50 of the amount collected.

THERE IS A LOT GOING ON. The new Basic Class is settled into the routine of learning new calls from Robin. The new Plus Class is being put through its paces (not traces, George!) by Kris. And Prime 8's members are experimenting with a new caller and making plans for an Advanced and Challenge Convention in 1994. In addition, there are two dances each being sponsored by Capital City Squares and Prime 8's in the next two months..

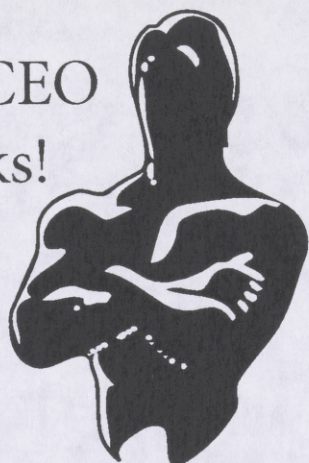

Now you could just sit back, peruse the Coming Events and Calendar pages of the Capers, and select events to attend. But you could also get involved in your Club and help make these events even better than they would have been without your contribution. New Basic Class members should seriously consider running for Basic Class Rep. This person will present the new class' views on subjects of concern directly to the Board: how the class is being taught, any problems with angels, etc. The Plus Class members should try to be faithful angels to the Basic Class and dance the Mainstream tips during the breaks. As a Plus Class member, you need the practice that both activities provide. And full Plus level dancers should angel the new Plus Class, for practice and floor time in preparation for possible future Advanced Class membership in Prime 8's. Finally, seasoned Prime 8's members should involve themselves in a club that is in the throes of transition to a more mature Advanced (and maybe in the future, Challenge) club.

However, everyone should get involved by volunteering to help with the day-to-day and week-to-week running of the Club's classes and special events. See Kas, or any other Board member, to see where your help is needed, whether it be helping to decorate for this weekend's Red Party Hoedown or helping to make sure we have water and soft drinks at each class night.

To those who have already stepped forward, we say "thank you!" To the rest, we say "get involved in your Club!"

The CEO Speaks!

WELL, HERE WE ARE in the midst of another year of FUN WITH SQUARE DANCING!!

We are at the point where the new class is now closed, and the members thereof can begin to progress through the 68 calls that make up Basic/Mainstream Square Dancing! Each week will bring new calls, new ideas, and new ways of moving around that ol' square. You will find this an exciting and fun "sport" and one you can take with you all over the world. It's only the beginning. . .

NEW CLASS—we are also at the point where you need to look around at fellow class members and decide, once you get to know each other a bit better, whom you would like to see as your class representative to the Board. While this is a non-voting position, it is important that a member of your class bring views from the perspective of the class to the attention of the Board. We need the input from you both directly (e.g. during class) and through your rep at meetings. Think about this; we would like to have the rep chosen in time for the next board meeting, which is December 2, so let's have the election for that position on the first. (This election is limited to the members of the class.) Thanks

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING IS SCHEDULED FOR DECEMBER 1, 1992. PLEASE PLAN TO ATTEND. While there are not a lot of things to bring before the general membership, there are a few. There is also a video tape promoting the 1993 IAGSDC CONVENTION IN SEATTLE that I'd like everyone to see. This might be a good time. The tape is only about ten minutes long. With the other agenda items now on the "list," the meeting should take less than half an hour (prob'ly between classes.) Please do plan to attend this meeting, it's for all current members, as well as other interested parties. If you have items to bring up, please let me know soon.

VOLUNTEERS—I want to thank all those who have pitched in to help with many of the "little" things. Specifically, to Steve for taking over the sodas, to Rick for hauling the equipment (after doing it for over two years, I almost miss it . . . NOT!), to Mark for grabbing the water cooler, and to Lola for baking those yummy cakes. Please be aware that these people will definitely be willing to share these tasks with other interested parties—in fact, most will need to be spelled periodically; so don't everyone sit back and relax!

Other volunteers are needed on an occasional basis. Kas is always happy to have extra hands helping to decorate at various events (mostly the dances.) We will be asking for help prior to each of these events, so be ready to stick that ol' hand up! Speakin' of which, we do need some help this Saturday for the dance at William Land School. We'll ask, you say yes (an' no one gets hurt . . .).

MY UNDYING GRATITUDE to all those who showed up to collect ballots after the election last Tuesday night. There were fourteen of us there, and the club treasury greatly appreciates that! We had fun, the sorority/fraternity kids couldn't quite figure us out, and the supervisors went out of their way to say thanks and come back next time (they really were glad to see us

THIS MONTH'S MEETING was held at Bill and Michael's in Citrus Heights. Present were Heidi in her jeweled collar, Bill, Kas, Rick A., Rich, George, Rick C., James, and Mark.

The first item of discussion was Convention in Seattle. We received a package including a video, registration info, and general information on the city itself.

Second—The Board scheduled a general Club meeting for class night on Dec. 1.

Third—George asked Bill to mail out post cards one last time before classes continue.

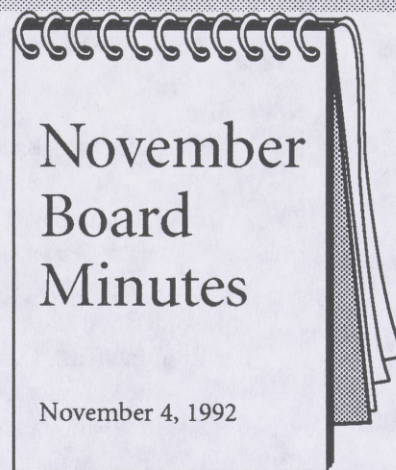

Fourth—The dance on Nov. 14 will be held at William Land School from 7 to 10 p.m. The caller will be Joe Kola. Dances will alternate between basic/mainstream/plus. The evening will carry a red theme, so wear lots of red and bring your favorite red munchies. The dance will be free to the basic class members.

Fifth—Rick A. reports $822.00 in the treasury.

Sixth—The dance scheduled for Dec. 12 at William Land School from 7 to 10 p.m. will be called by Art Hinton. Kas says the theme will be "Starry, Starry Night."

Seventh—14 Club members showed up on election night to collect ballots, have a great time, and earn some cash to support the Club.

Eighth—Prime 8's is considering hosting a fly-in during Fall 1995, possibly in Tahoe. Anyone with suggestions related to this topic, please contact a Prime 8's member.

Ninth—James discussed having February's dance with Joe Kola as a "dangle" dance where each tip would earn dancers a type of dangle.

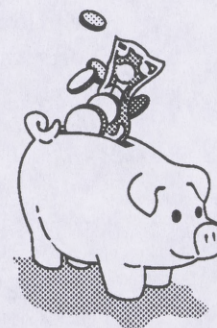

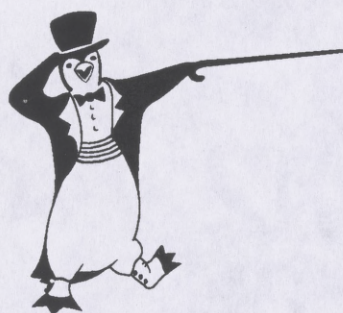

Tenth—Lois has volunteered to bake the cakes for birthdays. Steven Star is bringing the sodas on class nights. Thanks to both of you!

Eleventh—James suggested placing an ad in the program for the Sacramento Men's Chorus Christmas concert. He will look into the price.

Kas is looking for volunteers to help decorate for the red dance. He can be reached at 448-7170.

Respectfully submitted by

again—they said we are about the most efficient group out there). So, thanks again to those fourteen! AND GREAT BIG THANK YOU'S TO EVERYONE WHO VOTED! This is so important; never skip it.

A FEW MORE THANK YOU'S ABOUT A FEW MORE THINGS!! I do want to thank everyone who came and danced in costume on the 27th. It was a lot of fun, there was a variety of apparel. I think we all had a good time, didn't we?

Camp Cazadero, the Western Star Dancers' annual retreat, was a hoot. There were five of us from Sacramento: Rick, Rich, Rick, Glenn, and me. The three R's and I were in one cabin while Glenn (new class) was shackin' up with some guy from the Bay Area. Our cabin got the award for "most likely to 'trick-or-treat' on December 25th" (who creates these categories, anyway?). The weekend was a lot of fun. THANK YOU WSD!!

OTHER AREAS—A few up coming events ya might be interested in: November 14th: Our first dance of the season. Theme: "Red Party" that's wear something RED, not communist. . . .

November 27th: Western Star Dancers' "Basics Only Dance." While WSD's class is ahead of ours, we have been assured that our basic dancers will have dances aimed right at them.

December 12th: Our "Holiday Dance." Theme: "Starry Nights." (Please note that both dances in Sac'to are at William Land School, 12th & V, in the downtown area.)

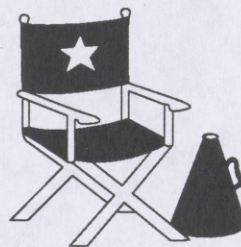

ONE LAST LITTLE THING—Be sure to check the fliers and such that we have available. If they aren't out on the table somewhere, ask (since we might forget . . .).

I am glad to be here with you, to dance, to socialize, to get to know ya. Thanks for bein' -here.

See Ya Dancin'

This Square Dancing... It's Pretty Neat!

I hope you new dancers are enjoying the class. I must admit, however, that I didn't really enjoy my first class all that much. But this will be Dennis' and my sixth year of square dancing... and my enthusiasm grows every year. Some reasons why:

1) The Convention.—I remember damning those non-refundable tickets to our first in Phoenix. "Why are we doing this? I don't even like it! I hate the desert—it's ugly and dusty and dead. What the hell do I do when they call 'recycle'?" A 'workshop' at the convention taught me to recycle. And then we danced...with 800 cowboys and cowgirls. And leathermen! And a square of drag queens riding stuffed animals sewed into their dresses(?) The energy was about the highest I had ever experienced... synergistic and wild! So much individuality expressed while all working in concert! The convention in Seattle this summer will be the tenth for gay square dancing—and we all know how gay people love special occasions! Knowing how Seattle does fly-ins, I can guarantee you that this convention will be done right!

2) Fly-Ins—There are tens of gay square dance clubs across the country and in Canada, and most of them hold a 'fly-in' once a year. A fly-in is a dance held over a weekend. It typically has one or two well-liked callers, and perhaps a western (two-stepping) dance thrown in late one night. Maybe there's a brunch or dinner as part of the package. Some have theirs out of town: like the fabulous Baltimore party at a hotel at Rehoboth Beach. Most hold the event in town, and will arrange housing for visitors with club members to keep costs down. In addition to lots of attendees from nearby towns, it is not uncommon to get a few from the other side of the continent. By the way... that ugly Phoenix desert... isn't! It's beautiful! So much so that each January we escape Sacramento's cold and fog for their wonderful fly-in, where it's warm enough to wear just a T-shirt while ogling the crowd at the gay rodeo held during the day. We then square dance till around ten, and then two step with those hot rodeo hunks at Charlie's till even I have seen enough men in boots for one day! We have experienced great western dances attended by lots of non square dancers at Toronto and Vancouver fly-ins. Seattle had a fabulous dance/party on a boat ride on an absolutely perfect day on Puget Sound. And we had the fun of seeing an extremely popular black caller being visibly incredulous at our reaction to her high energy calling style at one of her first big gay dances in San Francisco. Like to travel, but want a focus for your trip? Want to be confident that you can easily meet people to eat with, sight see with, and... well,... you know? Fly-ins...what a concept!

3) Local Dances—Looking for an excuse to visit San Francisco for the weekend? Need something to do before the bars get going? There are three gay square dancing clubs in 'The City,' plus one in Palo Alto. They do surprisingly few fly-ins, but lots of GREAT Saturday night dances. Most gay people don't need a full weekend of square dancing to get them to the city by the bay, and these dances are always well attended by people from out of town. And that is particularly true of dances held on special evenings, like the one held on gay pride weekend.

4) Extended family—As you stay with square dancing, besides constantly meeting new people, you keep re-encountering many of the same people—from all over the continent—at the various events. And you start to feel as though you are a part of a big family. The people you met at your first convention tend to continue learning the same level that you are, and the longer you stay with square dancing, the more camaraderie you feel. And it is so easy to talk to people...just 'square up' with them. Sacramento dancers Stan and Bill were the first two people to sign up for the original gay square dance convention in Seattle nine years ago. Their 40th anniversary was a major hit at the Vancouver, Canada, convention, when it was announced during the banquet. And when the Seattle club got ready to take registrations for this year's convention, they sought out Stan and Bill to make sure that they would again be the first to register. How's that for family?

5) Enthusiasm—That's what the Mainstream and Plus dancing levels are all about. Until you go to a fly-in or convention, you don't know the meaning of the word. Square dancing can seem a bit silly while you are taking the class, but get in a room with a hundred or so cowboys and cowgirls up to their collective tits in boots and vests and western belts and jeans and hats and leather and lace... and ready to dance... and you get up for it, ya know??

6) Higher Levels—There are all types of people. For many, the enthusiasm of the Mainstream and Plus levels is what they love. And these levels definitely have the strongest gay identity! Straight callers new to gay events are often astounded by the incredible energy we put into our fun! Like two stepping, however, there are some limits to how much you can do with Plus dancing. When you dance as much as some of us do, you start feeling a little too familiar with it, and want to have some room to grow. Well... besides the Basic, Mainstream, and Plus levels, there is also A1, A2, C1, C2, C3A, C3B, C3X, and who knows how many C4 levels. As you get into the higher levels, the emphasis shifts from remembering what to do on a given call to figuring out how to apply the right rules to your given situation. The callers direct you through some very complicated patterns, and you collectively think your way along. It is like a moving puzzle, with eight people all cooperating to solve it. The outward energy tends to drop as the mental energy increases, but you definitely get that synergetic high that is the hallmark of square dancing!

7) Bonds with "those people"—Oh yes... at the "C" levels, there are rarely enough people in one town to support both gay and straight clubs... so gays and straights have to mix. Had someone asked me four years ago if I wanted to dance with straight people, I would have told them "NO WAY"! And we never would have started C1 if Stan and Bill, then co-presidents of the Roseville TNT's otherwise straight club, hadn't repeatedly encouraged us. This past September, our straight friends Bobbie and Merle, whom we met through the TNT's, were married... and Stan, Bill, Del, Dennis, and I were among only about fifteen of the hundreds of square dancers that they both know who were invited to their very warm and personal wedding.

This square dancing... it's pretty neat!
